Written Testimony

I am exasperated with the people using Apona St. in Moanalua Garden in morning between 6:00 and 8:00 am to get to Tripler Army Medical Center. It normally would take me 15 minutes to get to work, however it takes me 30 minutes because I am not able to get out from my own drive way and when I do get out, the people would give me attitude by shaking their finger, cussing and tail gate you. They blast their radio in the car, the worse one is the motorcycle. Also they take illegal left turn from Jarrett White Road on to Apona St during the day. There is a no left turn sign posted clearly but they turn in anyway. In January 2016, I contacted Dennis Drake, Director, Public Affairs for U.S. Army Garrison - Hawaii and inform him of the traffic problem we are having on Apona St. He inform me that he will send a Captain to investigate why the traffic is so heavy, till this day, I have not heard from him. At this time, we are asking the City and County of Honolulu to turn Apona St. to a cul-de-sac.

Thank you
